

As you read the Gettysburg Address, complete the questions and fill in the unfinished sentences

1. What year is Lincoln referring to when he says "four score and seven years ago?" _____
2. What was our new nation conceived in? _____ Our nation was dedicated to the proposition that what? _____
3. Now we are engaged in a great civil war, testing whether that nation, or any nation so conceived and dedicated, can? _____
4. Why does Lincoln say we can not dedicate...we can not consecrate...we can not hallow this ground? _____
5. It is for us the living, rather, to be dedicated here to... _____
6. What unfinished work do you think Lincoln was referring to? _____
7. What cause did they give their last full measure of devotion? _____
8. That this nation, under God, shall have a new _____
9. And that Government of the people, by the people, for the people, _____
10. What year was the Gettysburg Address written? _____
11. In your own words, why do you think the Gettysburg Address is one of the most significant documents in America's history?